TOUR ITINERARY

Day1:USA / Canada-Saigon, Vietnam

Start to board your international flight and cross the dateline today.

Day2:Arrive Saigon

Ho Chi Minh City commonly known as Saigon, is a city in southern Vietnam famous for the pivotal role it played in the Vietnam War. It's also known for its French colonial architecture, including Notre-Dame Basilica, made entirely of materials imported from France, and the neoclassical Saigon Central Post Office. Food stalls line the city's streets, especially around bustling Ben Thanh Market.

Today you will land at Saigon international airport, after go through the custom check, you will be greeted by our local representative after you retrieve your luggage and then transfer to hotel for check in. Relax and acclimate to your new time zone.

Day3:Saigon (B)

Enjoy a half day city tour in the morning with visits to Reunification Palace, the Emperor of Jade Pagoda, Notre Dame Cathedral and the Central Post Office. Pass by City Hall, the old Opera House (from outside). Conclude the day at Central Ben Thanh market. Free at leisure in the afternoon.

Optional tour: $49/pp (Min 2 pax to operate)

Excursion to Cu Chi Tunnels in the morning. Never discovered by American forces, the Cu Chi Tunnels were an important Vietcong base during the American War. Today walk through the area and learn about the day to day life of the Vietcong.

Day4:Saigon (B)

Explore Saigon on your own today or join the optional (Pre – Booking required) Excursion to My Tho with a boat trip to Mekong River islands.

Optional tour: $69/pp (Min 2 pax to operate)

From Saigon, transfer to My Tho, a bustling town in the rich agricultural region of the Mekong Delta and visit the Vinh Trang Pagoda, a beautiful temple which illustrates the splendid harmonious fusion of Asian and European architectural styles. Afterwards board a local boat to explore the Mekong River Islands, stopping at a fruit orchard to enjoy fruit and tea while listening to local music and Thoi Son islet. The trip also includes a brief sampan ride through the tiny waterways that thread the island.

Day5:Saigon- Denpasar, Indonesia (B)

Bid farewell to Vietnam and continue the trip to Denpasar, capital of the exotic island province of Bali. Bali is a popular tourist destination, known for its forested volcanic mountains, iconic rice paddies, beaches and coral reefs.

Today we check-out hotel before noon. And depending on the air schedule, we might take flight which departure in the early morning or late evening.

Day6:Bali (B)

Spend a full day discovering the natural beauty and ancient relics of the Balinese midlands. Start the day with a visit to Pura Taman Ayun, the 17th century temple of Mengwi, set in a beautiful park with trees and ponds full of lotus blossoms. The large spacious temples and multi-tiered shrines are surrounded by a wide, elegant moat. Continue to Bedugul, a village in the central highlands famous for its stunning beauty and three lakes. Stroll around the traditional market where a myriad of fruits, vegetables, orchids, exotic spices and souvenirs are for sale. At the nearby Lake Bratan photograph the Ulun Danu temple, built on small islands in the serene lake.

In the afternoon drive southwards to the famous Unesco heritage listed rice terraces of Jatiluwih. Trek through this area of green stepped rice fields and hear about the Subak irrigation system that has been preserved by the Balinese farmers for centuries. Return to your hotel via scenic roads.

Day7:Bali (B)

Free at leisure today.

Optional tour: Tanah Lot in the morning & Alas Kedaton monkey forest

Optional tour: $49/pp (Min 2 pax to operate)

See the Tanah Lot sea temple without the crowds and meet the monkey inhabitants of Alas Kedaton.

Usually visited during sunset, we will bring you to the stunning seaside Tanah Lot temple in the morning to enjoy this ancient temple without the crowds of tourists. Possibly the most famous and most photographed place in Bali, the temple sits majestically on a large offshore rock which has been shaped over the years by the crashing waves of the surrounding sea.

After photographing the temple exterior and the unusual rock formations, drive to Taman Ayun temple, a royal temple from the Mengwi Empire. This multi layered temple is set in a beautiful park and surrounded by ponds. A short drive from here will bring you to Alas Kedaton, a small forest where mischievous monkeys roam freely through the temple and forest.

Day8:Bali (B)

Free at leisure today or join one of the below optional tour:

(A) Full-day Bali nature and wildlife adventure $159/pp (Min 2 pax to operate)

Discover Bali's wild-side on this full-day adventure tour, combining a white-water rafting experience and trip to the island's Elephant Safari Park. Take a heart-pumping trip down the Class II and III rapids of the Ayung River, enjoying a safe and fun ride with your professional guides. Then make friends with Bali's largest herd of endangered Sumatran elephants, enjoying a talent show and 35-minute ride from these majestic creatures. All entrance fees, equipment and guides, plus a buffet lunch.

(B) Volcano, Temple and Terrace full day tour $69/pp (Min 2 pax to operate)

During this full day tour discover the culture, countryside and stunning scenery of Bali. Start the day with a performance of the famous Barong and Keris Dance. This traditional Balinese dance narrates the fight between good and evil and is a classic example of the Balinese way of blending myth and history into one reality. Drive to Tampak Siring to visit the unique temple of Gunung Kawi. Set at the bottom of a lush green river valley, these 11th century temples feature 10 rock-cut shrines, called candi, carved into the cliff face. The awe-inspiring shrines combine ancient Hindu and Buddhist temple attributes. Walk down the many stairs to the temple taking in the views of the terraced rice fields along the way. Continue to Kintamani set around the rim of the Gunung Batur crater. Look out over Bali's most active volcano, Mount Batur, which soars over 1800 metres into the sky. In the centre is a beautiful turquoise-green lake, the largest lake of the island. Lunch on your own expense in a local restaurant with beautiful views, drive back to the south with a stop in Tegalalang to see Bali's most iconic rice terraces and here we have planned a coffee break for you.
