TOUR ITINERARY

Day1:USA-Depart for Thailand

Board an international flight bound for Bangkok, eager to begin our Asia vacation. Spend the night aboard as our flight crosses the International Date Line.

Day2:Arrive in Bangkok

Welcome to Bangkok, the capital city of Thailand. Up on Arrival, greeted by our local tour guide at the airport and transfer to your luxury hotel. Time to rest, relax and acclimate to your new time zone.

Day3:Bangkok (B)

Bangkok is one of the world's top tourist destination cities, deep-rooted in ancient Buddhist tradition and beliefs. After Breakfast, we visit one of the Bangkok's well-known sights at Wat Pho(Temple of the Reclining Buddha) the oldest and largest temple in the city, with its astonishing giant Reclining Buddha, over 150 feet long and almost 40 feet high. Then we drive through the bustling Chinatown, Bangkoks largest Flower Markets at Paklong Talat, drive via Royal Avenue where most of the Government offices are located and the King's Palace before returning to your hotel and the rest of the day is free on your own or you can choose to or join our optional Asiatique Riverfront Night Market plus Thai Dinner and classical dance show.

Day4:Bangkok (B)

A free day at Leisure and explore Bangkok independently. Or join the optional tour to Bangkok's most famous landmarks including the Grand Palace which was built in the 18th century as a royal residence for the king and his court. Follow by visit Wat Phra Kaew, which is home to the iconic Emerald Buddha, with its brightly colored buildings, golden spires and gorgeous mosaics. You'll see the distinct contrast in style between the Thai-inspired Wat Phra Kaew and the European design of the Grand Palace. Afterwards, we take a boat ride along the famous Chao Phraya River with its many historical attractions, temples and architecture, passes landmarks of Bangkok such as Wat Arun(The Temple of Dawn) and lunch at local Thai restaurant. Later we continue to visit The Ananta Samakhom Throne Hall(Marble Hall) is a former reception hall within Dusit Palace in Bangkok, Thailand. It now serves as a museum and is from time to time employed for certain state occasions.

Note: sleeveless tops and short skirts are not allowed in the Marble Hall – both women and men must wear clothing that covers your ankles and shoulders.

Day5:Bangkok (B)

Enjoy a free day at Leisure or join the optional tour package which include Damnoen Saduak Floating Market, River Kwai Trekking – Elephant Riding and Bamboo Rafting. Ride the speed boat along the canal to the colorful Damnoen Saduak Floating Market, observe how the ancient trading of wares is conducted between hundreds of local farmers and villagers aboard with fully loaded of all kinds of products including fruits, vegetables, dry goods, and freshly cooked food on the small Sampan boats. Continue to Kanchanaburi and visit War Cemetery, resting-place for over 6,000 Allied prisoners and an opportunity to take a short train ride across the bridge on the Kwai River. During WW II, Japan constructed the meter-gauge railway line from Ban Pong, Thailand to Thanbyuzayat, Burma. The line passing through the scenic Three Pagodas Pass runs for 258 miles. This is now known as the Death Railway. The construction was done using Prisoners of War (POWs) and Asian slave laborers in October 1942 and was completed in a year. Due to the difficult terrain, thousands of laborers lost their lives. After lunch at local restaurant, we continue our trip to the Elephants Camps in Kanchanaburi and see how talented these elephants are, a close up encounter with baby elephants and then have an unforgettable experience of forest trekking on elephant's back ride for 30 minutes. Afterward, board on small bamboo rafts and float along the Kwai River before we head to Bangkok in the evening.

Day6:Bangkok (B)

Spend the day explore on your own or join our optional tour with a full day to Thailand's former capital city, Ayutthaya was founded in 1350 and became Thailand's second capital city. Begin with a visit to Bang Pa-In, a collection of beautiful buildings in various architectural styles, surrounded by a lake, once the Royal Summer Palace for the Thai Kings. Next continue to the impressive Ayutthaya Historical Park, designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site and Wat Mahathat, in the center of the city. Here, you can see the ruins of the former capital and its remaining palaces, Wat Phra Srisanphet, Wat Mongkolbopit, monasteries and towers – one can envision the grandeur and splendor that was once the Kingdom of Ayutthaya. Continue to the Chai Wattanaram Temple, conceived as a replica of the Angkor Temple – at this serene place one can reflect and enjoy the tranquility. Return to Bangkok on a cruise along the Chao Phraya River, lifeblood of the city.
